Documentary Film “The Phenomenon Bruno Gröning”

In an open, objective and sensitive way, the film shines light on the individual stages of Bruno Gröning's life and work. Original film and audio documents, archive material and complex re-enactment scenes have been incorporated. The eyewitness reports of more than 50 contemporary witnesses make the film a particularly impressive experience.

Healings during the Film

Viewers report feeling an energy, tingling and a streaming sensation in the body while watching the film. Some report the disappearance of pain, disabilities etc. Erika Kappler (63 years old): I suffered from severe shoulder pain for more than eight years, day and night. In the end I could neither lift my right arm anymore nor carry anything. My doctor called it a chronic inflammation of the shoulder. Medication only eased the pain. After seeing the documentary film the pain simply disappeared! Today I carry boxes and chop wood without pain.

Help and Healing through the teaching of Bruno Gröning

With growing awareness of holistic and alternative healing possibilities, the topic “healing on the spiritual path” is also attracting increasing attention, even within professional spheres. One name appears time and again: Bruno Gröning (1906 - 1959). Due to remarkable healing successes he became world-renowned in the 1950s. He left behind the knowledge of how to receive a natural healing energy which he called “Heilstrom“. Healings happen now as then, even from ‘incurable’ diseases. These are documented in a multitude of medically verified success reports.

The Bruno Gröning Circle of Friends

The Bruno Gröning Circle of Friends is one of the largest organizations worldwide for healing on the spiritual path. Here, people seeking help and those who are interested can learn free of charge how to absorb the healing power. In doing so, amazing healings frequently occur, even from long-standing physical ailments.

Bruno Gröning (1906 - 1959)

During his lifetime, Bruno Gröning built up local communities. Today they exist on every continent on earth. Here, the Bruno Gröning friends meet to absorb the healing power together and report about their experiences and healings.

Everyone is free to join the Circle of Friends or to leave it. There are no financial or legal obligations. All expenses are covered exclusively by voluntary donations. In accordance with Bruno Gröning's example, no medical consultation, examination or treatment takes place. Neither doctors' visits nor medical treatment are advised against.

Young People in the Circle of Friends

In the Bruno Gröning Circle of Friends, young people all around the world meet in youth communities. Bruno Gröning's teaching helps them to master their life successfully and with confidence. Through absorption of the healing power, illnesses such as anxiety, depression, allergies and others can disappear, as well as difficulties at school, with study or at work. Zest for life and self-confidence are strong values in life again.

Help with Addiction Disorders

Numerous success reports also demonstrate that long-lasting healings of alcohol and drug addiction, as well as other addictions, are possible on the spiritual path. It is not just about the abatement of symptoms, but rather about being freed from the inner causes of addiction.

The Medical Scientific Group (MWF)

The Medical Scientific Group (MWF) is an international association of several thousand physicians and members of other health care professions from over 70 countries. Since 1992, they have been examining healings and help received on the spiritual path through the teaching of Bruno Gröning. Success reports are scientifically verified and documented based on the results of medical examinations from independent physicians. An extensive archive has been collated confirming this work. In order to help sick and needy people worldwide with this knowledge, the Medical Scientific Group (MWF) shares its experiences through publications, regular lectures at home and abroad, as well as at professional conferences with colleagues and interested people, all given free of charge.
